For Immediate Release

June 4, 2009

Two Thumbs Up for “Movies in the Square” First Showing of the season Thursday, June 25th at dusk

Downtown Kingston’s beautiful Springer Market Square will once again be transformed into an outdoor movie theatre for most Thursday nights this summer. An eclectic line-up of classic movies will be projected on a 24 x 40 foot inflatable screen parallel to Market Street in the Square. Movies will begin at dusk, about 9:00 pm for the June and July showings and closer to 8:30 pm for the features in August. All movies are free!

The exciting third season line-up is as follows:

Thursday June 25	Hook
Thursday July 2	The Goonies
Thursday July 16	Mrs. Doubtfire
Thursday July 23	Singin’ in the Rain
Thursday July 30	My Girl
Thursday Aug 6	Rocky
Thursday Aug 13	Contact
Thursday Aug 20	Homeward Bound: The Incredible Journey
Thursday Aug 27	The Aristocats Special Blues Presentation
Thursday Sept 3	A League Of Their Own

Movie-goers are encouraged to come early and bring a lawn chair. Popcorn, lemonade and other treats will be available for sale from vendors. “Seat positioning” is on a first-come, first-serve basis - low back lawn chairs are encouraged to allow for a good view for all. In the event of a rain-out, rain dates will be announced through local media.

Movies in the Square is part of events that are being programmed at Springer Market Square and is a cooperative endeavor between Downtown Kingston! and the City of Kingston, Department of Culture and Recreation and generously sponsored by Empire Life, Startek and CHUM Media.
